Management Commentary

"Our automotive business has entered a period of rapid growth, driven by multiple blockbuster models and global expansion. Over the coming quarters, we will continue to grow our scale, while technology-driven revenue growth and cost optimization will become increasingly evident," said Mr. Xiaopeng He, Chairman and CEO of XPENG. "XPENG Robotaxi had been granted approval for L4 demonstration operations. Our next-generation humanoid robot is accelerating toward the mass-production milestone by year-end. Technological leadership in physical AI will open up more high-margin commercialization opportunities with strong competitive barriers for us across global markets."

"In the third quarter of 2026, XPENG achieved growth despite industry headwinds and made continuous progress in operational performance. Vehicle margin increased quarter-over-quarter to 13% and overall gross margin approached 19%," added Dr. Hongdi Brian Gu, Vice Chairman and Co-President of XPENG. "Looking ahead, we will not only pursue high-quality revenue growth, but also drive improvements in our operating results through economies of scale and a more favorable business mix. This will lay a solid foundation for us to capture the long-term growth opportunities in physical AI."

Revenues from services and others were RMB2.65 billion (US$0.39 billion) for the third quarter of 2026, representing an increase of 13.7% from RMB2.33 billion for the same period of 2025 and a decrease of 1.9% from RMB2.70 billion for the second quarter of 2026. The year-over-year increase was primarily attributable to increased revenues from carbon credit trading.

Vehicle margin was 13.1% for the third quarter of 2026, compared with 13.1% for the same period of 2025 and 12.1% for the second quarter of 2026. The quarter-over-quarter increase was due to the improvement in product mix of models.

Services and others margin was 67.1% for the third quarter of 2026, compared with 74.6% for the same period of 2025 and 75.1% for the second quarter of 2026. Research and development expenses were RMB2.85 billion (US$0.43 billion) for the third quarter of 2026, representing an increase of 17.5% from RMB2.43 billion for the same period of 2025 and a decrease of 2.1% from RMB2.91 billion for the second quarter of 2026. Selling, general and administrative expenses were RMB2.78 billion (US$0.41 billion) for the third quarter of 2026, representing an increase of 11.4% from RMB2.49 billion for the same period of 2025 and an increase of 11.2% from RMB2.50 billion for the second quarter of 2026. The year-over-year increase was primarily due to higher marketing and advertising expenses and higher personnel costs related to sales functions. The year-over-year and quarter-over-quarter decreases were primarily due to the decrease in receipt of government subsidies.

Fair value (loss) gain on derivative liability relating to the contingent consideration was a gain of RMB0.16 billion (US$0.02 billion) for the third quarter of 2026, compared with a loss of RMB0.07 billion for the same period of 2025 and a gain of RMB0.05 billion for the second quarter of 2026. This non-cash gain resulted from the fair value change of the contingent consideration related to the acquisition of DiDi Global Inc. ("DiDi")'s smart auto business.

Loss from operations was RMB0.75 billion (US$0.11 billion) for the third quarter of 2026, compared with RMB0.75 billion for the same period of 2025 and RMB1.14 billion for the second quarter of 2026.

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Measures

The Company uses non-GAAP measures, such as non-GAAP loss from operations, non-GAAP net loss, non-GAAP net loss attributable to ordinary shareholders, non-GAAP basic loss per ordinary share and non-GAAP basic loss per ADS, in evaluating its operating results and for financial and operational decision-making purposes. By excluding the impact of share-based compensation expenses and fair value (loss) gain on derivative liability relating to the contingent consideration, the Company believes that the non-GAAP financial measures help identify underlying trends in its business and enhance the overall understanding of the Company's past performance and future prospects. The Company also believes that the non-GAAP financial measures allow for greater visibility with respect to key metrics used by the Company's management in its financial and operational decision-making. The non-GAAP financial measures are not presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP and may be different from non-GAAP methods of accounting and reporting used by other companies. The non-GAAP financial measures have limitations as analytical tools and when assessing the Company's operating performance, investors should not consider them in isolation, or as a substitute for net loss or other consolidated statements of comprehensive loss data prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The Company encourages investors and others to review its financial information in its entirety and not rely on a single financial measure. The Company mitigates these limitations by reconciling the non-GAAP financial measures to the most comparable U.S. GAAP performance measures, all of which should be considered when evaluating the Company's performance.

For more information on the non-GAAP financial measures, please see the table captioned "Unaudited Reconciliations of GAAP and non-GAAP Results" set forth in this announcement.
